August Greetings from The Town Book Store

Hope everyone is continuing to enjoy their summer. The weather has been kind of crazy, so when we get one of those picture perfect summer days it seems like such a gift. I have been enjoying catching up on some books that I have been wanting to read but was finding it hard to find the time to get to. The summer is such a great time to do this since I am able to get to spend some time away on my beloved Cape Cod. I was at the beach the other day and looked around me and was gratified to see that almost every person was reading something. Hope you too are having that opportunity!

Thanks so much for your loyalty and patronage!

See you down at the store,

Anne Laird

NEW NOVELS BY TWO GREAT WRITERS

I recently read South of Broad. The one and only Pat Conroy returns with his first novel in 10 years, with a big, sprawling novel that is at once a love letter to Charleston and to lifelong friendship.

His other works include: The Great Santini, Beach Music and Prince of Tides...also great books. If you are a fan of his, this book will not disappoint. If you haven't read anything by him, now is a good time to start. This book goes on sale on August 11th.

I also had a chance to read That Old Cape Magic by Richard Russo, author of the Pulitzer prize winning Empire Falls. He is one of my favorite authors writing a story that takes place in my favorite place in the world. The storytelling is flawless throughout, moments of great comedy and even hilarity alternating with others of rueful understanding and heart-stopping sadness, and its ending is at once surprising, uplifting and unlike anything this Pulitzer Prize winner has ever written. This book goes on sale on August 4th.

STAFF PICKS

Don't forget to check out our staff picks online or on our pick's wall in the store. Every title has been thoroughly enjoyed by at least one of our staff. I have many customers who have come to know that a certain staff member's picks are bound to match their tastes and they come back month after month to see what that person has selected. When a customer loves your pick, you feel like you have found an instant connection with that person and friendships are made.

We really love recommending books to eager readers. There is a great satisfaction in helping a customer find just the right book.

We take the time to make sure of that by chatting with you, finding out what you liked or didn't like and then do our best to match you up with a book that you will love.

The Diary of a Wimpy Kid #4
Dog Days

by Jeff Kinney

We would be happy to pre-order a copy of either book (or both) for you today.

Author Signings

We have been getting a lot of requests from authors interested in signings so keep a look out for the fall's schedule of events.

Do you ever wonder if someone is out there living a parallel life to your own?

Imagine my surprise when I checked my email before going to bed last night to discover that my "doppelganger" had contacted me. Her name is Anne Laird and she owns an independent bookstore in Cambridge, Ontario. How weird is that!
