So many of you once again told me that you embraced this idea this holiday shopping season and it showed. Business at The Town Book Store during December was brisk as many of you decided that books were the right choice for your holiday gift giving this year. The fourth quarter of 2009 was our strongest in a long time so we can't express our appreciation enough for your loyalty and support.

2) The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society by Mary Ann Schaffer

This book continued to be a huge seller once it came out in paperback. It's quirky characters make this an endearing feel-good read.

3) Olive Kitteridge by Amy Strout

These 13 interlocking tales about curmudgeonly Olive Kitteridge makes this 2009 Pulitzer prize winner a sure bet.

4) People of the Book by Geraldine Brooks

Add this one to her other great reads, Year of Wonders and Pulitzer Prize winning, March.

5) The Middle Place by Kelly Corrigan

So many people felt inspired by her upbeat approach to her diagnosis of breast cancer and her wonderful relationship with her larger than life father, George.

6) The Great Money Binge by George Melloan

Written by Westfield resident and 50 year veteran editor of The Wall Street Journal.

7) Those Who Save Us by Jenna Blum

Our favorite hard sell makes our top 10 for the 3rd year in a row.

8) Sarah's Key by Tatiana de Rosnay

An interesting story that takes place in France's during the Holocaust.

9) Loving Frank by Nancy Horan

Continued to be a favorite book club pick, this historical fiction depicting the affair between architect, Frank Lloyd Wright and Mamah Borthwick Cheney. Why not try T.C. Boyles book, The Women, which explores all the women in Wright's life.

10) A Course Called Ireland: A Long Walk in Search of a Country, A Pint and the Next Tee by Tom Coyne

This book resonated with many golfers as they lived Tom Coyne's adventure in Ireland through this great book. Out in paperback 2/1.
